

MGMC Meeting
July 23, 2019

New People

Barbara and Ted just happened to wander in

Lab/Class Update

halfway through summer class

Field Trip

Agate haul, July 28, 2019 Agate Quarry, Prairie du Chien

Show & Tell

Scot M. flat lapping: dark basalt with feldspar looks like flowers, polyhedral agate, obsidian.
Recently got back from Iceland... will be doing a future presentation on that trip.

Club Picnic:

Sunday, August 11th. Competition - Rocks for kids (entries will be given away to kids)

Competition: Celebration of Twins

1st Place: Fairy Cross staurolite twin (Scot Moss)

2nd Place: Amethyst Geode (Kathy Johnson)

Speaker: Jaime Martindale

Aerial Photography: Visualizing Wisconsin's History from Above

- UW-Madison Map Library

Located in Science Hall:

~500,000 items in the collection.

~260,000 aerial photos

These photographs catalog change over time

- History of aerial photography follows:

1862 President Lincoln, the Great Depression, 1932 Farmers Holiday Movement (farmers strike), The New Deal, 1936 AAA commodity tax, 1938 USDA

Aerial imagery today: NAIP

Aerial photography research online: WHAIFinder

<https://maps.sco.wisc.edu/WHAIFinder/>

