

MGMC Meeting - September 26, 2017 7:00 P.M.

New people: local jeweler, Don, wants to learn faceting

Competition

1st Place: Scot - Spider web obsidian

2nd Place: Nevin - Fire obsidian

Show update: November 18-19, 2017

- Nevin: Show Chair
- Scot: volunteer coordinator - volunteers needed for Ticket sales, club sales, set-up for Friday at noon (pick up items at Scott's and Bob's homes) and clean-up, exhibits. No prior experience necessary.
- Carl B: Demonstrations
- Bob: club sales (consignment sales sheets available - make sure items are clearly marked)

Elections at November meeting

Speaker: Dr. Bill Green, Logan Museum of Anthropology

Note: WI Archeological Society meeting, Saturday, Sept. 30, 2017 at Beloit College, presentations in the afternoon. Tour of the Indian Mounds on campus at about 12 noon.

Goal: to engage the Beloit College community (teaching museum)

Beloit College - first to offer coursework in anthropology

Work done by the college around the world... in Europe - France, Africa - Sahara and Algeria, China - Inner Mongolia, South America - Peru, North America - SD, ND, MN, WI, IA, MO, AR, MI...

Archeology, help tell the stories of the past.

Answers to Questions

Open daily and free to the public - parking is free

New exhibit on the 2nd floor

group tours available - goes behind the scene

